1. What is the difference between a “certified” and an “uncertified” copy of a marriage certificate?

A certified copy of a marriage certificate issued by the Local Vital Records Office will have a raised seal, will show the signature of the Local Registrar, and will be printed on security paper. A certified copy may be required to change your last name or to obtain benefits.

State law restricts who may obtain a certified copy of a marriage certificate. A certified copy can only be issued to those people with a “direct and tangible interest” (section II, categories A – E) which means the following people:

- The bride or groom named on the marriage certificate (section II, category A).
- An immediate family member defined as a parent (whose name is on the bride or groom’s birth certificate and whose parental rights have not been terminated), brother, sister, grandparent, or child of the subject of the record (section II, category B).
- NOTE: Grandchildren, step-parents, step-children, step-brothers and step-sisters can only obtain certified copies as section II, categories C – E.
- The legal custodian or guardian of the bride or groom named on the marriage certificate. Legal proof, e.g., a court order of custody or guardianship, is required. (section II, category C).
- A person authorized in writing by one of the above. A written and notarized authorization must be attached to this application and the authorization must clearly state the relationship of the authorizing party to the subject of the record (section II, category D).
- A person who can demonstrate that the marriage certificate is required to determine or to protect a personal or property right (section II, category E). Proof is required.

If you do not meet one of the above criteria, you cannot receive a certified copy of a marriage certificate.

An uncertified copy will contain the same information as a certified copy but it is not acceptable for legal purposes, such as claiming insurance benefits (section II, category F).

2. How long will it take to process my request?

Copies of marriage certificates are available from the Local Vital Records Office no less than 3 weeks from the date of the marriage.

- Applying in Person
 - Requests for certified copies of marriage certificates are usually completed within 2 business hours of application, if the marriage certificate is on file.
 - Requests for uncertified copies of marriage certificates are not completed on the same schedule as requests for certified copies. In- person requests for uncertified copies may take up to 1 month to complete.
- Applying by Mail
 - Requests for certified copies of marriage certificates may take up to 2 weeks plus mail time to complete.
 - Requests for uncertified copies of marriage certificates are not completed on the same schedule as certified copies. Mail requests for uncertified copies may take up to 1 month plus mail time.

3. What identification is required when applying for a certified or uncertified copy of a marriage certificate?

A photocopy of the applicant’s current ID as listed below must be submitted with all fax mail applications. A current ID as listed below is required when applying in-person.

At least one form of ID must show your current name and current address. Expired cards or documents will not be accepted.
